COMPANY HR POLICY HANDBOOK

1. Introduction

This policy handbook provides guidance to all employees regarding company rules, leave entitlements, attendance, payroll, discipline, security, and professional conduct. It aims to ensure transparency, fairness, and compliance with organizational standards.

These policies apply to all permanent, temporary, and contractual employees of the company unless otherwise specified in their employment contract.

2. Work Timings and Attendance

The standard working hours are from Monday to Friday, 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM, including a one-hour lunch break. Saturdays and Sundays are weekly off days unless business requirements demand otherwise.

Employees must mark attendance daily through the official attendance system or approved biometric or web-based application. Late arrival beyond fifteen minutes must be informed to the reporting manager in advance.

Employees are entitled to one lunch break of sixty minutes and two short breaks of ten to fifteen minutes each. These breaks should not affect work productivity.

Overtime work must be approved by the manager in advance. Overtime may be compensated either through payment or compensatory leave as per company policy.

3. Leave Policy

Employees are entitled to different types of leave as described below:

3.1 Earned Leave

Employees receive 24 days of earned leave per year, credited monthly. Unused leave can be carried forward up to a maximum of 15 days. Earned leave encashment is permitted only during separation from the company.

3.2 Casual Leave

Casual leave may be taken for short-term personal needs such as family matters or urgent personal work. Prior approval is required from the reporting manager.

3.3 Sick Leave

Sick leave is provided for health-related reasons. Medical certificates are required for sick leave exceeding three consecutive days.

3.4 Compensatory Off

Employees working on weekends or holidays may receive compensatory off with prior approval. Compensatory leave must be used within 30 days of accrual.

4. Work From Home Policy

Employees may work from home up to two days per week with prior approval from their reporting manager. Work from home is allowed only during official working hours.

Employees must ensure availability through email or official communication platforms and must maintain productivity standards similar to office work.

Work from home is not permitted for roles requiring physical presence unless specifically approved by management.

5. Payroll and Salary Payments

Salaries are processed monthly and credited directly to the employee's registered bank account on the last working day of each month.

Any change in bank account details must be informed to the Human Resources department in writing.

Deductions from salary will be made according to applicable laws and company policies, including provident fund contributions, professional tax, and income tax.

Employees are responsible for verifying their salary slips every month and reporting discrepancies within seven days.

6. Travel and Expense Reimbursement

Employees traveling for official business may claim reimbursement for expenses such as bus fare, train fare, flight tickets, and hotel accommodation.

All reimbursement claims must be submitted with valid original receipts within seven days of completing travel.

Entertainment and personal expenses are not eligible for reimbursement unless explicitly approved in advance by management.

7. Code of Conduct

All employees are expected to maintain professional behavior at all times. Respectful interaction with colleagues, clients, and visitors is mandatory.

Harassment, discrimination, abusive language, and any form of misconduct are strictly prohibited.

Employees must follow company rules, comply with lawful instructions, and protect the reputation of the organization.

8. Internet and IT Usage Policy

Company internet and computer systems must be used only for work-related purposes.

Accessing illegal, inappropriate, or offensive websites during office hours is strictly prohibited.

Employees must not install unauthorized software or use external storage devices without approval from the IT department.

9. Data Security and Confidentiality

Employees must protect company data and confidential information at all times.

Sharing passwords or login credentials with others is strictly prohibited.

Employees must not access company systems using public or unsecured networks.

All confidential documents must be handled responsibly and should not be disclosed to third parties without written authorization.

10. Health and Safety Policy

The company is committed to providing a safe and healthy working environment.

Employees must follow safety guidelines and immediately report unsafe conditions to their manager or HR department.

Smoking, alcohol consumption, and drug use inside company premises are strictly prohibited.

11. Separation and Exit Process

Employees wishing to resign must submit a written resignation and serve the notice period as mentioned in their employment contract.

During the notice period, employees must return all company property, including ID cards, laptops, and documents.

Final settlement will include pending salary, leave encashment, and applicable deductions and will be processed after clearance from all departments.

12. Disciplinary Actions

Violation of company policies, misconduct, or non-compliance with rules may result in disciplinary action.

Disciplinary action may include:

- Verbal warning
- Written warning
- Suspension
- Termination of employment

The severity of action depends on the nature and seriousness of the offense.

13. Amendment of Policies

The company reserves the right to modify or update these policies at any time based on business requirements and legal regulations. Employees will be informed of any changes through official communication.
